

British Values in Our School

In addition to Christian values which underpin our school's ethos, we teach British values in a range of ways.

All of our work about values is in order that our children have the best chance to make good, wise and informed choices about how to treat themselves and others both now and in the future.

How do we learn about the British values of individual liberty, rule of law, mutual respect, democracy and tolerance of others?

Where in our school?	Individual liberty	Rule of law	Mutual respect	Democracy	Tolerance of others
